DISCUSSION: The voluntary departure bond in this matter was declared breached by the Field Office Director, Detention and Removal, Los Angeles, California, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

The record indicates that on April 8, 1999, the obligor posted a $500.00 bond conditioned for the voluntary departure of the above referenced alien. An order of the immigration judge (IJ) dated April 6, 1999, was issued granting the alien voluntary departure in lieu of removal on or before May 6, 1999. The bonded alien appealed the IJ's decision to the Board of Immigration Appeals (BIA). On September 11, 2002, the BIA affirmed, without opinion, the IJ's decision, and granted the alien voluntary departure within 30 days from the date of the order. On September 4, 2003, the field office director concluded the bond had been breached.

The appeal has been filed by the bonded alien. The alien, however, is without standing in this proceeding.

An immigration bond is a contract between ICE and the obligor. The obligor or his attorney-in-fact is the proper party to appeal the ICE decision to breach the bond. See Matter of Insurance Company of North America, 17 I&N Dec. 251 (Act. Reg. Comm. 1978).

The regulations provide that an appeal filed by a person or entity not entitled to file it must be rejected as improperly filed. In such a case, any filing fee ICE has accepted will not be refunded. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v).

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
